Principal's Corner: It is hard to believe that we are already at the midterm point of the first quarter. Time really flies when you are learning! Your child will be bringing home with him/her on Wednesday several important documents. Your child's midterm progress report along with last year's ISTEP scores, if your child was in grades 3-7, and all students grades K-8 will be bringing home their Fall NWEA testing results. The progress report and the NWEA goal setting sheet will need to be signed by a parent/guardian and returned to school no later than Friday, September 15th.

Please take some time next week to discuss your child's current progress along with their NWEA scores and goals for their Spring test. It is very important to have families, students, and teachers on the same page as far as working with your child to reaching his/her goal on NWEA for the spring. The next NWEA testing session will be in December for teachers to check how your child is doing towards reaching his/her maximum potential.

Our very own 8th grade teacher will be honored on Friday, September 22nd at Roncalli's homecoming game by being presented an honorary diploma from Roncalli. Miss McHugh's hard work and dedication to her students and supporting Roncalli with their efforts is the reason for her being presented this special honor on behalf of the Roncalli Alumni Association.

Hurricane Harvey Update: Thank you to all families for your generosity with donations! We had a great out of uniform day and collected more than 15 boxes of toiletries and over $ 564 in cash. Great job, Saints!
